SECNAV INSTRUCTION 1001.33B

From: Secretary of the Navy
To: All Ships and Stations

Subj: UNIFORM TRAINING AND RETIREMENT CATEGORIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY RESERVE COMPONENTS

Ref: (a) DODDIR 1215.6 of 14 Mar 97 (NOTAL)
(b) DOD Instruction 1215.19 of 14 Mar 97 (NOTAL)
(c) Title 10, United States Code, Subsection 671

1. Purpose. To implement policy, as provided in references (a) and (b), and prescribe procedures that pertain to:

a. Initial Active Duty Training (IADT), including basic military training and technical skill training for non-prior service personnel accessed into the Reserve components of the Department of the Navy.

b. The designation and use of uniform Reserve Component Categories (RCC's) and Training Retired Categories (TRC's) for the Reserve Components of the Department of the Navy.

This instruction contains extensive revisions and should be reviewed in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. SECNAVINST 1001.33A.

3. Applicability. This instruction applies to the Reserve components of the Navy and Marine Corps.

4. Background. The purpose of IADT is to prepare new military members with the basic military skills required to perform their duties and function in a hostile environment. Reference (b) establishes the minimum IADT requirement for members of the armed forces prior to assignment on land outside the United States, its territories and possessions. This requirement applies to all members of the Ready Reserve. Reference (c), subsections 671(a) and 671(b), establishes separate IADT requirements during peacetime, and periods of war or national emergency. During peacetime members must complete the basic training requirements of the armed force in which the member is serving. Under circumstances of war or national emergency declared by the President or Congress, the period of required basic training may be no less than 12 weeks (or its equivalent) as prescribed by the Service Secretary. Subsection 671(c) provides exemption from the required minimum length of IADT for credentialed health care specialists.

5. Policy

a. The Department of the Navy shall maintain a trained and ready Reserve Force capable of deploying throughout the world to meet assigned mission requirements. All non-prior service personnel recruited by the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve will be provided basic military training/IADT within 1 year of accession as follows:

(1) Peacetime. IADT is required for all non-prior service accessions. This training will consist of either;

(a) Recruit Basic Military Training and technical skills training or;

(b) Advanced Paygrade (APG) Indoctrination Course (R-950-0005) plus 24 calendar days of inactive duty training for non-prior service accessions (male and female citizens and resident aliens over 26 years of age). Inactive duty training days include any combination of inactive duty training (IDT), annual training (AT), active duty training (ADT) or active duty for special work (ADSW); or

(c) Direct Commission Officer Course (DCO) (Q-9B-0024) plus 24 calendar days of inactive duty training (IDT, AT, ADT, ADSW) for non-prior service officers.

(d) Other Service Recruit Military Training fulfills the APG school requirement for Other Service Veterans (OSVETS) accessed into the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve.

(2) War or Declared National Emergency. IADT for all non-prior service personnel, both officer and enlisted, must be of a period not less than 12 weeks (or its equivalent) as defined below:

(a) Recruit Basic Military Training and technical skills training or;

(b) APG Indoctrination Course plus 72 calendar days of inactive duty for non-prior service accessions. Inactive duty training days include any combination of inactive duty training (IDT, AT, ADT, ADSW) days; or

(c) Direct Commission Officer Course (DCO) plus 72 calendar days of inactive duty for non-prior service accessions. Inactive duty training days include any combination of inactive duty training (IDT, AT, ADT, ADSW) days; or

(d) The IADT requirement for credentialed Health Care medical professionals will consist of completion of the Direct Commission Officer Course.

(e) Other Service Recruit Military Training fulfills the APG school requirement for Other Service Veterans (OSVETS) accessed into the Naval and Marine Corps Reserve.

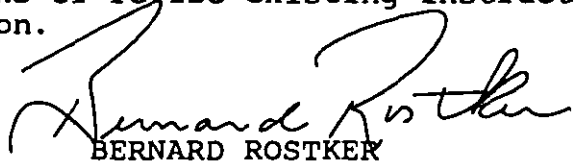

b. All RC members shall be placed in authorized RCC's and TRC's for training and accountability purposes in accordance with references (a) and (b). Non-prior service (NPS) personnel shall be placed in a non-deployable account until they have completed the basic training outlined in paragraph 5a.

6. Responsibilities. The Chief of Naval Operations (CNO) and the Commandant of the Marine Corps (CMC) shall:

a. Ensure non-prior service personnel accessed into the Reserve Components complete the basic training requirements in paragraph 5.

b. Place all non-prior service members in the proper RCC's and TRC's for training and accountability purposes.

7. Action. The CNO and the CMC shall issue new service headquarters level instructions or revise existing instructions to comply with this instruction.
